WEARS ONE.

At Government Receptions She Will Occupy a Throne and be Decked in Royal Robes and Priceless Jewels.

An American girl, Mrs. George N Curzon, will shortly occupy a rank next to Queen Victoria in the British empire, as her husband, George Curcon, has just been appointed viceroy to all India. This is the first time the exalted rank has been conferred on commoner since the great Warren

Hastings held it. Mrs. Curzon is 31. She has great beauty, $5,000,000 as dowry and young husband, who is already one of the great men of the nation. She is tall, dark, majestic. Her hair and her complexion are entrancingly beautiful. She is brilliantly accomplished. and has been gifted by nature with a ready wit. This is reputed to take a severe turn at times.

Mrs. Curzon will appear as a great sovereign before the millions of In-dia. A beautiful, brilliant and talented American girl, she is peculiarly fitted to teach the courtly Hindus how great a power a woman may wield The viceroy of India has palaces at Calcutta and Simla. The Calcutta palace is known as Govern-ment House, and is the largest official residence in the British empire, ex-ceeding in size any of Queen Victoria's palaces. The Simla palace is a large and beautiful place in the mountains, intended for use in the summer time when life in Calcutta becomes unpearable.

The court of India over which Mrs. Curzon will rule is far more splendid and ceremonious than that of Eng-land. This is absolutely necessary in order to impress the natives and the semi-independent princes, who still form a very important element in the Indian empire. When the viceroy re-cieves at the Government House he wears a uniform heavy with gold lace and sits upon a throne, wears royal robes, covered with diamonds and priceless jewels, and a crown upon his

Four years ago Mrs. Curzon was Miss Mary Leiter of Chicago and Washington. Her brother, Joseph Leiter, is the young man who recent-ly lost $5,000,000 for the family in tryng to corner wheat in Chicago,

Her husband will rule over 300,000,-000 subjects of the British crown in Indian, and will receive a salary of $100,000 a year and $200,000 at the same time for expenses. The cost of maintaining the viceregal establish-ment is something enormous, and for-mer viceroys have sometimes found that they had to dip into their own private purses to help pay for maintaining the official splendor of their position. The salary and expense money received by Mr. Curzon is six times more than the president of the United States receives.

Mr. Curzon will undoubtedly be aised to the peerage, possibly an earldom, before he takes office, and his wife will oin in the honors. This is the first time in history that an American woman has risen to such a high station in the British empire. Many believe the appointment is furnished as an augury of the much talked of Anglo-American alliance.
